NAXS admitted to trading on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm

NAXS Nordic Access Buyout Fund AB (publ) (“NAXS” or the “Company”) is a company investing in buyout funds with a Nordic focus. The objective is to make the Nordic private equity market accessible to a broader range of investors, which are also offered liquidity through NAXS’s listed shares. The Company commenced its operations in 2007 and its shares have been listed on NASDAQ OMX First North since the beginning.

The Company’s application for a change of listing from NASDAQ OMX First North to NASDAQ OMX Stockholm has been approved by the NASDAQ OMX Stockholm’s Listing Committee. The first day of trading for NAXS’s shares is expected to be Monday, 7 June 2010 and the last day of trading on NASDAQ OMX First North will then be Friday, 4 June 2010. The shares will be traded under the same abbreviation as previously, i.e. “NAXS”, and NAXS shareholders do not need to take any measures as a result of the change of listing. For further information, please refer to the prospectus which has been prepared as a result of the change of listing and which has been registered with and approved by the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority. The prospectus is available on the Company’s Swedish website.

The change of listing will facilitate the Company’s future development and further strengthen its brand name. Also, the Company believes that NAXS will benefit from the stamp of quality attached to companies admitted to trading on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm. In addition to submitting the Company to more stringent corporate governance requirements, the change of listing is expected to result in an expanded ownership base amongst both institutional and private investors. The change of listing also entails that NAXS will have the option to repurchase shares, which creates additional flexibility in respect of the Company’s capital structure. The change of listing has been made possible due to NAXS having reached a three-year financial history, which is a requirement from NASDAQ OMX Stockholm.

In connection with the change of listing of NAXS, its investment advisor will change name from NAXS Nordic Access Advisors AB to Naccess Partners AB.
