NAXS makes a EUR 7,25 million commitment to Intera Fund II

NAXS Nordic Access Buyout AB (“NAXS”) has made a EUR 7,25 million commitment to Intera Fund II KY.

Intera Fund II KY, which is the second fund raised by Inter Partners, held its first and final close today at EUR 200 million. Investors in the Fund include leading Nordic and European institutional investors, such as Keva and the State Pension Fund in Finland, Sjätte AP-fonden in Sweden, LGT Capital Partners in Switzerland and SL Capital Partners in the UK.

The Fund will invest primarily in Finnish companies that possess substantial growth potential in their domestic market or potential to expand abroad. From its first fund, Intera Fund I established in 2007, Intera has successfully invested in seven companies, among others Consti, Orthex and Trafotek.

This is the seventh commitment for NAXS, which since its IPO in May 2007 has built a diversified portfolio of seven buyout funds, six managers and an exposure to more than sixty portfolio companies in a variety of sectors. Four of NAXS’ portfolio companies have already been exited.
